THE CRTC SETS OUT DETAILED CRITERIA IN ASSESSING APPLICATIONS FOR NEW SPECIALTY AND PAY-TV SERVICES

OTTAWA-HULL -- In a public notice released today (Public Notice CRTC 1995-205), the CRTC reminded applicants filing proposals for new specialty and pay-TV services that they must realistically assess subscriber and distributor acceptance for these new services.

The Commission also stated that applications submitted by January 11, 1996 must be complete, and that no additional information would be accepted after that date unless specifically requested. It also outlined the criteria that will be used to assess the merits of these new services.
